

Energy Minister: Nuclear Energy a must for Turkey

Romania promises to export nuclear generated power to Turkey at the same time.

Zaman.com (Cihan News Agency)
February 15, 2006

On Wednesday, Turkish Energy and Natural Resources Minister Hilmi Guler said nuclear energy is a must for Turkey.

The Turkish economy, which is the 17th largest in the world, should use nuclear energy to take its place among the top 10 economies of the world, the minister sets a new target.

Turkey is planning to construct three nuclear power plants with a total capacity of 5,000 megawatts of energy by 2014.