

Jihad Group Claims Sabotage Of Koeberg Nuclear Power Station In Cape Town

A lunatic fringe group claims responsibility ... for a bolt. The Nuclear Power Plant was not involved.

As the Koeberg probe continues, security forces and police are now suspecting sabotage as the impairment of the Koeberg nuclear power station in Cape Town with a previously unknown Muslim group claiming responsibility in an email sent to selected media.

Alec Erwin, the public enterprises minister, says the damage to the Koeberg nuclear plant was done deliberately, with one of the two generators at Koeberg was damaged in December and has caused severe outages in the Western Cape over the past month. The other generator shut down automatically due to a trip in the high voltage power line early Tuesday.

JUS has received a claim of responsibility in both Arabic and English from The Imam Haroon Brigades, who appear to be a native organization. The group claims responsibility for sabotaging the Koeberg Power Station as “a support for our Mujahideen brothers around the world” and “as revenge for our brothers handed over by the South African government to America...”

The Imam Haroon Brigades Takes Credit For Sabotage Of Koeberg Nuclear Power Station

In The Name Of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful Praise be unto Allah who says: (And it was not you who threw when you threw, but it was Allah who threw) And may peace be upon the one who said: ((Strike Sa'ad! I will sacrifice my mother and father for you))

The following:

A raid by the Imam Haroon Brigades, belonging to The Foundation of Jihad at the Junction of the Two Seas, announces its success with the permission of Allah, in sabotaging the Koeberg Power Station in Cape Town, South Africa.

This mission comes two years after our warning to the South African government that we shall be a support for our Mujahideen brothers around the world and that we shall be a support to the oppressed Africans against their Capitalist Imperialist governments.

As you are fond of electricity cut-offs on the poor and oppressed in South Africa, so taste a bit of that which they taste! And your let your businesses lose out, in an economy where the poor see no benefits.

We promise to continue our raids with the blessing of Allah and we shall not forget revenge for our brothers handed over by the South African government to America and we shall continue our Jihad against Capitalist democracy.

(And Allah shall be victorious in His matter, but most of mankind do not know)

The Imam Haroon Brigades
