

RWE joins bidding for Romanian nuclear plant extension contract

Normal business in Europe

Hemscott
July 23, 2006

RWE AG has joined the bidding for a Cernavoda, Romania nuclear plant extension contract, a company spokesman told the Frankfurter Allgemeine Sonntagszeitung.

So far, 15 local and international companies, including E.ON AG, Iberdrola SA and Enel SpA, are bidding for the contract.

Earlier press reports indicated the contract is worth 2.2 bln eur.